EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

JANUARY 1954 VOL. XI—NO. 4

WHAT SHALL WE TEACH?

What Shall We Teach? An Editorial ..................................................... Robert R. Leeper .................. 207
What Dare We Leave Out? ............................................................... Earl C. Kelley .................. 209
Assignment: The World ................................................................. Leonard S. Kenworthy .......... 213
Essentials in Communication Arts and Skills ............................... Francis Shoemaker .......... 218
The Common Denominator in Religious Values ............................. Merrill E. Bush .............. 226
Creative Arts and the Child ............................................................. Ernest Ziegfeld .......... 233
Economic Education: A Requisite of Citizenship .......................... Arch W. Troelstrup .......... 237
Organization for Instruction Affects Pupil Values ....................... Mack E. Horsmon .......... 241
They Studied Fire Safety ................................................................. Una Mae Mitchell .......... 245

Departments

The Importance of People ............................................................. Peggy Brogan .............. 249
Curriculum Research ................................................................. Robert S. Fleming ........ 253
The Listening Post ................................................................. Joyce Cooper .............. 257
Curriculum Bulletins ................................................................. Eleanor Merritt .......... 261
Uniting Forces To Improve Education ............................................. Rodney Tillman .......... 265
Significant Books in Review .......................................................... Harold G. Shane .......... 267

Cover and illustrations by de Graffenried W. List, NEA

IN FEBRUARY—A Good Environment for Learning

A Classroom for Living
Effective Use of Forces in Community and Society

Where Does Cooperation Start?
How Are Your New Teachers Doing NOW?
A Better Understanding of Children and Youth