Crucial Problems of Today’s Schools

Editorial

How To Attend a Conference..............................................George W. Denemark..........................258

Articles

Resolving Conflicts in Supervision........................................Wilbur A. Yauch..............................265
Using Research To Point the Way in Curriculum Change......David H. Russell and J. Cecil Parker............269
Organizing for Effective Instruction......................................William B. Ragan.............................276
Issues and Problems in Teacher Supply..........................W. Earl Armstrong.............................281
Crowding—What Are the Issues?........................................Kenneth E. Howe...............................285
Implementing the Decision................................................John H. Fischer....................................288
Our Children’s In-School and Out-of-School Teachers........Lawrence K. Frank..............................293

Departments

The Importance of People................................................Peggy Brogan
Earl C. Kelley.........................................................303
Uniting Forces To Improve Education.............................Francis L. Drag
DeGroff Platte.........................................................307
Curriculum Research.....................................................William M. Alexander
Charles L. Boye.........................................................311
Curriculum News and Bulletins........................................Joseph I. Hall....................................315
Significant Books in Review...........................................Paul M. Halverson..............................318

Cover by de Graffenried W. List, NEA

The drawing on this month’s cover is based on a photograph furnished by the Milwaukee Public Schools. Grateful acknowledgment is made to the Milwaukee Public Schools for their courtesy in permitting our use of this photograph.

In March: Working Together at Home and Abroad