Notice of Proposed Amendment
To ASCD Constitution

In accordance with Article VII of the ASCD Constitution, the Executive Committee of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, NEA, proposes the following amendment to the ASCD Constitution.

The purpose of this amendment is to bring the stated objectives of the Association more accurately in line with the functional operating program of the Association.

Ballots will be sent to ASCD members on or before February 1, with the request that ballots be returned to ASCD headquarters by March 1. The amendment hereby proposed by the ASCD Executive Committee would alter the portion of the ASCD Constitution reproduced below:

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

Presently reads

The object of the Association shall be the general improvement of instruction and supervision; more particularly, the promotion of teacher growth in three major areas, namely: the area of wholesome emotional and mental development, the area of socio-economic understanding and adjustment, and the area of professional competence.

Proposed new reading

The object of the Association shall be the general improvement of education through better instruction and supervision which seek wholesome emotional and mental development as well as socioeconomic understanding and adjustment. To attain these ends the Association considers curricula suited to the needs and trends within such areas. To these ends the Association also studies, through activities and programs conducted by teachers and educators of professional competence, the utilization of texts, teaching aids, materials and developments related to these areas in order to increase knowledge and capacity, which will assure optimum benefit to students of the present and future generations.
