FOCUS AREAS OF ASCD LONG-RANGE PLANNING

Education and Care of Young Children. After considering population, social and learning trends, ASCD identified the education and care of young children as a major program emphasis in its strategic plan. The topic will be the theme of the November Educational Leadership Conference and of a conference planned for April 1987. Information will be reported in ASCD Update.

Teaching Thinking. Teaching thinking is a major program emphasis in ASCD’s new five-year plan. ASCD members may join a national network on teaching thinking by sending a check for $10 made out to ASCD Network on Teaching Thinking to John Barell, Montclair State College, Upper Montclair, NJ 07043.

Some 27 education organizations convened by ASCD are collaborating on several projects, including development of a framework for curriculum and staff development. The product of that effort, Dimensions of Thinking, will be published as a comprehensive member book in the spring of 1987. Other goals of the collaborative include working with publishers to improve textbooks and tests, encouraging needed research, and incorporating the teaching of thinking in teacher education. Information about each of these will be reported in ASCD Update and other publications as it becomes available. Project Facilitator: Ron Brandt, ASCD Executive Editor.

Leadership/Supervision Task Force.

With its first meeting in September, this group begins a three-year evaluation of existing ASCD services in supervision and planning improvement activities. It will consider developing a plan to recognize proclivities in the specialized areas of curriculum and supervision. Project Facilitator: Gordon Cawelti, Executive Director.

Redefining the Teaching Profession.

Through this group the association will consider current plans for differentiating teaching roles, career ladders, and restructuring teaching. It will determine implications for supervisors and the ASCD programs for improving teaching. Project Facilitator: Helené Hodges, Director of Program Development.

CURRENT PROJECTS

ASCD Networks. ASCD is currently sponsoring nine networks. They include Arts in Education, Clearinghouse on Learning Styles and Brain Behavior, Staff Development, Northwest Vermont Outcomes-Based Mastery, ASCD Educational Futurists, Thinking Skills, Teachers of Curriculum, Equity Issues and Women in Educational Leadership, and Instructional Supervision.

Any ASCD member may join. Project Facilitator: Diane G. Berreth, Director of Field Services.

Curriculum Trends Studies. ASCD has undertaken a series of longitudinal studies of elementary, middle, and secondary school curriculum trends that will be repeated in five-year cycles. The elementary study and the secondary study were reported in Curriculum Update in April 1985 and August 1986. For copies of the reports, available from the ASCD Fulfillment Department, send $1 and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. A study of middle level schools is underway. Preliminary results will be available at the New Orleans Annual Conference.

International Education Study Group. The association now has affiliates in Europe and Canada, sponsors NCSI programs overseas and study tours of China and Russia each year, and has played an important role in founding the World Council on Curriculum and Instruction, which met last summer in Hiroshima. ASCD has also established a professional relationship with curriculum organizations in British Columbia and Canada, and will act on a similar plan with Australia. This group will meet once during the year to give direction to ASCD’s expanding international role in education.

Supervision/Leader Behavior Training Update.

The development of more effective educational leaders is the focus of this project, which builds on current research in organizational development and leader behavior training. The proposed delivery system will employ interactive electronic media. Project Chair: Dale Mann, Teachers College, Columbia University; Project Facilitator: Lewis Rhodes, ASCD Manager of Media and Technology.

UPCOMING NATIONAL CURRICULUM STUDY INSTITUTES

See page 57 for NCSI schedule.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Dissertation Awards. Each year ASCD recognizes authors of outstanding dissertations in curriculum, supervision, and instruction. Eligible dissertations must have been completed during the academic year of 1 September 1985 to 31 August 1986. For guidelines contact Susan Hartsoe, Project Facilitator.

CONSORTIUMS

Middle School Futures Planning Consortium. Beginning in October, 25 middle-level schools from around the nation will begin a two-year effort to enhance the strategic-planning capability of the middle school faculties, assisting them to design middle school education appropriate to the future lives of students. Each school will produce a long-range plan that focuses on: (1) organizing the school; (2) improving the core curriculum; (3) planning for sustained improvement of teaching and learning; and (4) making better use of educational technology. Project Facilitator: Gordon Cawelti, Executive Director.

High School Futures Consortium. In the fall 25 high schools will be selected to begin a two-year project to train school teams in strategic planning. Watch Update for application information. Project Facilitator: Gordon Cawelti, Executive Director.
