PHOTO CONTEST WINNERS!

Thanks to all who entered ASCD's 1988 Photo Contest. The number of entries was large and their quality impressive. The photos were rated by a panel of judges, with final decisions made by Art Director Al Way. ASCD is proud to announce these winners:

Single Photo
First place: Richard Rau, Hackensack, N.J. ($200)
Second place: Christopher Oh, Los Angeles, Calif. ($100)
Third place: Gary Kubat, Eagan, Minn. ($50)

Series
First place: Pat Johnson, Mt. Pleasant, S.C. ($400)
Second place: Katherine Lovell, East Longmeadow, Mass. ($200)
Third place: Robert B. Noyed, New Hope, Minn. ($100)

Photo Essay on Early Childhood Education
First place: Enid Bloch, Bridgewater, N.J. ($1,000)
Honorable mention: Robert B. Noyed, New Hope, Minn.

Honorable mention: Betty Buchignani, Memphis, Tenn.

The winning photos in the Series category appear in this issue on pages 18, 19. One photograph from the winning Photo Essay appears on page 5 of this issue. The entire winning Photo Essay will appear in an issue of Educational Leadership to be published in the fall.

All photographs entered in the contest may appear in upcoming issues of Educational Leadership. (Published photos will be credited to the photographer.) So keep a lookout for your photograph in EL!

To accommodate expanding programs and staff, ASCD recently moved to a new building. Although we are still settling in, we are making every effort to ensure that this change does not disrupt service to our members. Our telephone number has not changed; individual employee's extension numbers have changed, however. Our new address is:
