The Coach Approach to School Leadership: Leading Teachers to Higher Levels of Effectiveness
Jessica Johnson, Shira Leibowitz, and Kathy Perret

Three coaching and leadership experts address a dilemma faced by many principals: how to function as learning leaders while fulfilling their evaluative and management duties. The answer? Incorporating instructional coaching techniques as an integral part of serious school improvement. Drawing from the authors’ work with schools as well as their conversations with educators across the globe, this thought-provoking book speaks to the unique needs of principals as instructional leaders, providing solutions to challenges in every aspect of this complex endeavor.

Instructional Coaching in Action: An Integrated Approach That Transforms Thinking, Practice, and Schools
Ellen B. Eisenberg, Bruce P. Eisenberg, Elliott A. Medrich, and Ivan Charner

Unlike “fix-it” strategies that targeted teachers are likely to resist, educator-centered instructional coaching—ECIC—offers respectful coaching for professionals within their schoolwide community. Instructional Coaching in Action offers detailed guidance for coaches and school leaders on how they can create the conditions for an effective ECIC program; get buy-in from teachers; clearly define the role of coach; roll out a coaching initiative; and ensure ongoing success with coaching.
