When was a time that you felt most engaged during class?

What was happening when you felt least engaged?

What will you take away for your own teaching practice from today's session?

How soon might you use something from today's session?

Please add questions, comments, and suggestions.